

MEMORIAL WEEKEND RETREAT

WITH SATGURU
BODHINATHA
VEYLANSWAMI

Satguru Bodhinatha Veylanswami presents selected jewels of Hindu life for two days, based on the teachings of Satguru Sivaya Subramuniyaswami. The seminar, held in the tranquil Santa Cruz mountains, is useful for adults and older youth.* And it is a wonderful opportunity for you to meet with Bodhinatha and share your questions, thoughts and inspirations with him.

Venue: The Sequoia Retreat Center
Ben Lomond, Santa Cruz, California
Date: May 24–26, 2008

For enrollment details and RSVP, contact Chandran Param at 925-788-9896 or e-mail chandranparam@hotmail.com

* Young children are welcome to attend the retreat, however they will need to be kept occupied during classes.

JOIN US AND LEARN ABOUT:

- A Hindu Approach to Interreligious Harmony
- Karma Management
- The Denominational Nature of Hindu Temple Worship
- Awareness, Consciousness and Meditation
- Finding Opportunities to Serve

Each of the sessions will begin with the monks chanting some Sanskrit, and a guided meditation on inner light or inner sound. After Bodhinatha speaks on a topic above, there will be group discussion and testimony.

Additionally, early morning time will be used to practice puja chants as a group.
